THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.RAMULU

W.P.No.23309 of 2000

ORAL ORDER:

This writ petition is filed seeking a Mandamus declaring the action of the respondent in seeking to seize the plant and machinery of the petitioner without the disputes being adjudicated and decided by a competent body, as arbitrary and illegal.

This Court, while ordering notice before admission on 30.11.2000, granted status quo existing as on that date for a period of one week. Thereafter, said order was extended on 15.12.2000 for a period of two weeks and further extended on 29.12.2000 for a further period of four weeks and thereafter nothing had happened insofar as interlocutory application is concerned.

Now the learned counsel for petitioner states that even before filing the writ petition, plant and machinery of the petitioner was seized and petitioner was already evicted.

In view of the above, nothing remains for adjudication in the writ petition. However, the petitioner is at liberty to workout its remedies as available under law. The petitioner is also at liberty to approach the authorities for amicable settlement in this regard.

The writ petition is accordingly closed. No order as to costs.
